Dear Future Patron,

Goldsboro Ballet is a non-profit dance organization whose mission is to produce quality ballet performances for the Goldsboro-Wayne County area. We were created in 1982 as Goldsboro Civic Ballet, and became a member of the Arts Council of Wayne County in 1985. Goldsboro Ballet brings in guest artists for performances, choreography, and workshops to further the dancers' training and opportunities. The ballet company proudly produces three annual public performances, which have grown tremendously in quality over the years due to the support of our community and patrons. Our goal is to offer performance opportunities for dancers who wish to be educated and dedicated to the art of ballet. As Wayne County grows, the appreciation of the arts grows and develops through organizations such as Goldsboro Ballet!

As a dance company, we not only aim to provide quality ballet to the community, but we also strive to be part of our community by giving back! Over the years, Goldsboro Ballet and its dancers have had the privilege of partnering with many other non-profit organizations and community programs. These programs have allowed our ballet company and dancers to give back to school aged children, churches, senior citizens in assisted living facilities, and adults and children with special needs, through volunteering and sharing the love of dance.

It is our desire to continue spreading the love of dance with as many people as we can. For that to be a reality, we are in need of continual support from our community. Would you consider joining us as a sponsor for our reimagined "Love of Dance Benefit Performance?" We are seeking partnership from those in the community, and want to invite you and those who may be interested, to the Paramount Theatre on September 19, 2026 for an evening filled with dance, food, community, and the opportunity to support Goldsboro Ballet. Your participation helps Goldsboro Ballet increase the vibrancy of the arts in the community. For more information about how to join us for this year's benefit performance, please see the attached form. Thank you in advance for helping Goldsboro Ballet continue to grow and share ballet with others.

Sincerely,

Mary Franklin

Thank you!

We are so grateful for your willingness to partner with Goldsboro Ballet and are excited for you to join us at this year's "Love of Dance Benefit Performance." Here are a few more details you may need to know before September 19th.

First thing's first! Invite! Since you have chosen to sponsor a row, you will be receiving invitations to the performance. Please help us fill the theater, and your row, by distributing all of your invitations to people you believe would be interested in learning more about Goldsboro Ballet and its mission.

A few other important details:

- Performance Date: September 19, 2026
- Performance Location: Paramount Theatre in Downtown Goldsboro
- Event Time: 7:00pm doors open for hors d'oeuvres and beverages in the lobby
- Performance Time: 7:30pm performance begins
- Upon your arrival to the theater, we ask that you visit the concession stand in the lobby. There, you will give your name or business name to the attendant. They will then hand you a folder. Please hold on to that folder until you are given further instructions later in the evening during the performance.
- Before the performance begins, you and your guests are free to help yourselves to the variety of hors d'oeuvres and beverages located in the lobby. Sweets will be provided alongside more beverages during Intermission.
- Once you and your guests enter the theater, you will find the row you have sponsored by looking on the end of each row. The end of each row will have a sign on it with name of the individual or business who has sponsored that row. Once you have found your row, you and your guests are free to have a seat!

Sincerely,

Mary Franklin
